

1 the Minority group, because that is what is the first step
2 in the freezing process that he was evidently against.
3 Now, apparently from my point of view he should go one
4 step further, and he should extend that to have a geograph-
5 ical division of this board, and I think we should make 6 it a lay board, and I think he should go a step further 7 and prescribe who shall be on that board so far as the 8 State superintendent to be selected by the board itself.

9 Now, we know that in the case of Purnell v.
10 State Board of Education in 125 Maryland, the legislature
11 could modify, control and abolish and change all the 12 appointed members of this board. I am glad to see at 13 least that the Minority has conceded the fact that we 14 should now constitute the State Board of Education as a 15 part of constitutional recognition.

16 The State board constitutes a representative
17 body in education more than any other field. The voice
18 of the people is to be heard clearly and distinctly.

19 State constitutions have provided an avenue
20 through which oncoming generations may have their educa-
21 tional needs satisfied and supplied by a board with authority
